

SIXTH ANNUAL SILVER BLUFF AUDUBON CENTER & SANCTUARY TRAIL RIDE IN JACKSON, SC

Saturday, March 6, 2010
4542 Silver Bluff Rd., Jackson, SC

Audubon South Carolina invites you to participate in a day of horseback trail riding at the Silver Bluff Audubon Center & Sanctuary, nestled along the Savannah River. Silver Bluff's 3,000 acres of pine forests, bottomland hardwoods, open fields, lakes, streams and ponds provide the perfect setting to ride and enjoy the habitat and wildlife diversity. This will be an organized ride and Audubon asks that riders respect all posted signs and gates. Federal and state law protects wildlife, plants, and artifacts.

Saturday Ride – Rain or Shine: 10:00 A.M. Organized Ride Departs

Lunch is Provided: 12:00 P.M. – Hamburgers, Chips, Soft Drinks and Water

Ride Resumes: 1:00 P.M. until 3:00 P.M.. Schedule may vary.

Cost Per Rider: $30.00. Proceeds will support the Silver Bluff Audubon Center & Sanctuary.

Pre-Registration is required. Original Current NEGATIVE Coggins Required. No Exceptions! Each rider will be required to complete a SC Veterinary Association Horse Form with specific Coggins information, as well as an Audubon Release of Liability Form. We ask that no horses be tied to trees but placed on a picket line or tied to your trailer. Water will be provided for horses. Please bring your own hay. Recommend no stallions and riders will be provided red ribbons to tag those horses that kick. No dogs or alcohol allowed. Absolutely no smoking allowed on the trail.
